

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT AT CLIENTS SITES (ON-SITE SERVICE)

Management and waste treatment integral solutions.

At Hidronor we rely on more than 25 years of experience in waste management and treatment, contributing value to the country's sustainable development.

We provide a specialized service at each client's facility according to their needs, as the use, recovery, site administration, transportation and final disposal.

Service

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT AT CLIENTS SITES (ON-SITE SERVICE)

DESCRIPTION

The service is focused on delivering an efficient, effective and safe solution, specifically for each client, to comply with the current environmental standards.

This includes consulting, development of management planning, management of waste handling facilities on-site, reconditioning, transportation, recovery, treatment and final disposal of the waste.

CHARACTERISTICS

- Consulting is given to comply with the current standards.
- Support in the management and elaboration planning for the appropriate integral management procedures of industrial waste.
- The administration of waste management facilities in manufacturing companies and mining sites.
- Inventory management of waste storage according to current environmental standards.
- Cleaning of backyards, warehouses, pools, contaminated ponds and high complexity of waste.

- Dismanteling, removal and transportation of contaminated PCBs, and their exportation abroad for their incineration.
- Reconditioning, transportation and final disposal of the waste in a secure and efficient manner.

BENEFITS

- Outsourcing environmental risk management.
- Compliance of current legal regulations.
- National coverage and integral service for the transportation, treatment and final disposal of the waste in secured facilities.
- Final waste disposal certification .